The Mountain Interstate Foreign Language Conference invites you to attend its 61th annual meeting at Auburn University in Auburn, AL

Submissions of abstracts are welcome in the following languages, literatures and cultures:

Catalan	Italian
Chinese	Japanese
Francophone	Luso-Brazilian
French	Spanish
German	Spanish-American

We are especially interested in papers dealing with the following topics, approaches and issues in our profession:

Technology and Language Learning
Literature and the Arts
Film Studies
Women's Studies

Latin American Studies
Study Abroad Eco-Criticism
Translation and Interpretation
English as a Second Language

In addition to these sessions, we invite you to participate in roundtable discussions on these and other issues of importance to our profession.

Papers may be written in the language with which the reader feels most comfortable; however, they are limited to no more than 20 minutes. Papers of authors in absentia will not be read.

Anyone interested in reading an original paper or submitting a proposal for an organized panel should submit a one-page abstract (in the form of a MS WORD attachment only, please) by e-mail to zuwiyzd@auburn.edu by March 21, 2011.
